From the Baron

Greetings unto the Barony of Caerthe.

Our travels have taken us afar to a war that our King deems fit to fend off the merciless kingdom of Atenveldt, and to help our neighboring kingdom of Artemesia. I hope all that have traveled to this great war are filled with great stories of honor and true acts of chivalry, and as we show once again what makes this kingdom and its populace so great and so strong on and off the field of battle! This barony never fails to show how gracious we are and how we are filled with dignity for those around us all, no matter where the road takes us.

I look forward to hearing the stories that we have brought back with us this year. I may ask you all to tell me the tales around a camp fire this coming summer.

As we look into the future of this barony, we must look forward to greeting our new heirs to the thrones of this mighty kingdom. May we raise our glasses in their honor and toast them with open hearts. Let us welcome them as we have in the past. Long live the King and Queen!

I would ask that all of the baronial retinue please contact me so that I can put together a list of all its members. You deserve to be shown off for all of your hard work!

There will be order meetings this next month at THLdy Wyndylyn's keep. Also if there is anyone that would like to give a hand or two in doing some sewing and/or would just like to give it a try, or to just get in some practice please contact me. I have several small projects that I would like to get started. It does not take great talent just someone that would like to give it a try.

I am planning on attending many events in the next few months and if anyone wishes to travel along, please feel free to ask. I would very much like to show off this great barony to the rest of this kingdom.

In service to this Barony and its Kingdom

Sir Maelgun McCain

From the Seneschal

Greetings to the grand populace of Caerthe! I hope you all have returned victorious form war. Let us update a few things, recap a few of the new policies we have set in motion.

1) To ask for exclusive (request other groups in the 100 mile radius not schedule against you) scheduling for your event, you or your representative must attend the planning meeting or make prior arraignments with the Seneschal. Even still Kingdom may ask you to share your date. Let us remember also why we would ask Kingdom to put us on the calendar. Look at the scope and nature of your event, speak with His Excellency about his court plans (is he planning on attending, will he hold court and are there awards he would like to give out at your event), and who is your target audience. Our Baronial calendar can have as many events as we wish to have on it, conflict only arises on the Kingdom calendar. If there is a need to make your event Kingdom official then by all means take the appropriate steps. If not, if you are a planning a small local event, a workshop, a guild fair, or the like, there may not be a need to schedule on the Kingdom calendar. We have been very pressured again this year, by Kingdom, to reel in our events. My friends, if we do not try even harder to ease the calendar, Kingdom will take a stand, and it will most likely be a stand you will not like. This actually would be a good topic for discussion for the State of the Barony meeting (to be scheduled).

2) To make requests for goods from the Baronial locker, one must now contact the Quartermaster with your request at least one full week before the date your event is scheduled. To do so any closer to your event you may run the risk of not be able to get the goods you need. This is an office that has been taken advantage of, not by any one person, but by us all as a whole. The are many offices that officers truly do out of love of service, the MOL, the Waterbearer, and the Quartermaster. These offices are often assumed to just "be there," but let us be considerate of them and make the necessary arrangements with them prior to our need of them.

3) Autocrats must now make arrangements to have a designated Marshal in charge at their fighting fencing or archery event. That person may or may not be the Knight Marshal, the Fencing Marshal or the Archery Captain. The Marshal in charge must be named on your event form and in your articles.

This is the last letter of solicitation for the position of Minister of Children. To even be considered as a candidate for this position, you must submit to a background check. Other than that your qualifications should be that you would enjoy working with our children. Good luck to applicants with letters already in, hazzah to you!

Now I want to say I am proud of you. The past few months have been fairly quiet and I have seen many good works from you. I have seen more cooperation and communication, a real effort. That has taken courage and compromise, very well done.

Lastly I will be turning over my office in May to the more than capable Mistress Meghan. I know I had extended my term, and part of me would really like to say that you all really need me until November, but the truth is it is time for me to go. I do so partly sadly and mostly gladly. I have enjoyed my time in service to you, I hope I have done well for you and I thank you for your friendship and support.

Winter's spell will soon be broken and I wish you all a joyous new season.

From the Marshal of Fence (retiring)

Greetings, from Rivka.

It has been my great pleasure to serve as Caerthe's Marshal of Fence since October of 1998, but the time has come for me to pass the banner (and the loaner gear) on to another. Don Carrick will be taking over for me starting the first week of March, after a well deserved rest from protecting the Queen at Estrella War.

I will still be available to perform authorizations in both epee and schlaeger should anyone need it.

Thank all of you for your help in keeping this Barony's fencing community strong.

In Service,

Lady Rivka Vladimirovna Rivkina

From the Chronicler

Greetings again from the Chronicler. This is going to be another long one, so please bear with me. I would like to make another, and hopefully my last for awhile, clarification about the "Caerthen" webpage. In a recent communication from THL Duncan, I have learned that the the issue of SCA-affiliated websites is being reviewed by the BOD. It is possible that at some point the position of Webminister will become an official office within the SCA, at which point all websites would fall under the control of that office. At present these websites fall under the control of the Chronicler's office. Because no Outlands-related websites have been pronounced as "official" as of yet by the Kingdom Chronicler, each group is still free to determine its own policies in the matter. This situation may change in the next few months, pending a decision by the BoD, and/or any policies that THL Duncan may see fit to implement in this regard. Accordingly, I am holding off formulating any Baronial website policies until I have received further direction from the Kingdom Chronicler in this matter.

A few things about the last issue. Unfortunately, there were a few more mistakes in it than I like to have. I would especially appreciate it if all the officers, guild heads, etc., would check their addresses, phone numbers, email addresses, meeting nights, etc., and inform me of any errors. I have made several changes to the officer's pages in the last few months because of changeovers, etc., and several errors have crept in in the process. Also, I would request that when you are sending in event articles, please check to be sure that the dates are correct. When I am preparing the calendar, I am often operating under a tight deadline and do not always have time to have the calendar proofed, so I usually go by the date that is in the article. Thank you.

Raise Money for your Favorite SCA Activity!

The Building Fund of the Barony of Caerthe will donae funds to the Baronial Treasury, earmarked for any valid SCA group/activity, in consideration for time spent working at the Thursday night bingo game. We will donate $10 (ten dollars) for each volunteer, up to a maximum of 3 (three) volunteers each night. We may request more volunteers on certain nights due to special circumstances. In that case, we will specify how many volunteers are needed, and we will match the donation for those additional volunteers.

Johann of the Northern Moors will be the single point volunteer coordinator. His job will be to ensure that positions are filled, so contact Johann at least one week in advance to volunteer. The three positions will be filled on a first-come basis. Contact information: Home (303) 730-7438 and Work (303)971-7509.

Volunteers are expected to be at the bingo hall no later than 7:00 p.m. and to stay until 10 minutes after the last bingo game is close (usually around 9:30). The bingo hall doors open to the public at 6:00 p.m., but volunteers can arrive as early as 5:30 if they wish. Volunteers may also stay as late as they want.

Sate of Colorado Bingo Regulations require that volunteers must have a paid membership in the SCA, reside within the Barony of Caerthe, and be at least 14 years of age.

Volunteers must sign in as bingo workers and also sign a second sheet listing their name and the activity they represent.

Donations will be made to the Baronial Treasury in the month following volunteer work, with a breakout describing where the funds are directed and who worked at the bingo game to secure the donation.
